Each April, as New York's Pier 94 is abuzz with activity during the AD Design Show, another favorite design events happens just a stone's throw away. On the adjacent Pier 92, DIFFA, the Design Industries Foundation Fighting Aids, enlists companies and designers to outfit a slew of tables to raise funds for its invaluable work to provide aid to New Yorkers living with HIV and AIDS. And the participants don't disappoint: from conceptual multipurpose spaces to blooming celebrations of spring, this year's set is a celebration of imagination and creativity. Click through for proof.

Jeffrey Beers International

Jeffrey Beers International's table honors David Bowie with a rock glam theme that calls to mind the artist's alter-ego, Aladdin Sane.
